CareAparent Recognizes Veterans at The 2022 Minnesota State Fair

Woodbury, Minn. - August 23, 2022 - CareAparent, a leading home health care company in the Twin Cities, is excited to be exhibiting at the Minnesota State Fair for the first time this year and will be recognizing Veterans on Military Appreciation Day, August 30, 2022.

CareAparent is a provider in the Veteran's Affairs extended care service network in the Twin Cities. They have specialists to navigate benefits and eligibility. On Tuesday, August 30, CareAparent will be recognizing Veterans and offering resources and special giveaways for booth visitors.

"It's our turn to support and care for Veterans. We provide quality care to meet the needs of Veterans in Minnesota with the compassionate care they deserve. It's at the heart and mission of what we do at CareAparent" –Grace Kinne, SVP Care Operations, CareAparent.

CareAparent is recognized for being a trusted home healthcare provider and a great place to work. As the aging population continues to grow, the CareAparent team seeks dedicated nurses, therapists and caregivers to support our Veterans and will have information at the booth regarding career opportunities.
